

Welcome to Featherstone Road

Service summary

- Featherstone Road is a beautiful 4 - bedroom, detached home in a residential area in Kings Heath, Birmingham
- It is home to four adults aged between 30 and 70 who have lived together for a number of years and are deaf, blind or who have dual sensory impairments
- The people who live at Featherstone Road have active lifestyles, balanced with relaxation and home-based activities
- We have a dedicated staff team who share the direction of the service manager
- We have our own beautiful garden with a sensory room and we grow our own vegetables in the summer

What we need from you

- A good sense of humour and a can do attitude.
- Someone who is active and willing to take part in a range of activities
- Someone who isn't afraid to speak up, actively contribute to the lives of individuals we support
- A team player who can also work well on their own initiative
- A willingness to work within a diverse home that promotes and supports differentiation as part of an individual's identity. Promote rights for all people to be active members of their communities regardless of their abilities.
- To work together to achieve the same goal
- A willingness to continually improve and take responsibility for their own development
- Drivers MUST be willing to drive company vehicles
- Someone with patience, good communication skills and who cares about 'person centred' support

What we are particularly proud of

- We are proud of our newsletter and celebrate the home's and individual's achievements
- Our families and friends are very important to us we continue to build on the existing fantastic relationships
- We will continually find new ways to promote participation and independently as much as possible and apply our "I statements" in all we do
- We support participate in person centred meetings that look at what is important to us, always act in the best interests of all who live at Featherstone
- The activities we participate in including adapted cycling, ice-skating, swimming, massage sessions and more